CHILD PROTECTION AND SOCIAL SERVICES

NEW BEGINNINGS TRANSIT HOME

The New Beginnings Transit Home is a temporary residential place of safety for children between the ages of 0 – 18 years who are victims of child abuse and severe neglect and who are in need of care and protection. This service works closely with the National Foster Care and Adoption Services to ensure that children are returned to where they thrive best: in secure and loving families. The Division is the main agency with responsibility for the protection of children from all forms of abuse and neglect. The Division has the mandate for providing support services for children and families in crisis. Such services may take the form of therapeutic interventions and childcare and protection programmes aimed at strengthening and preserving the family unit.
